Dear All,

Mark you calendar -

Wednesday, January 14 at 6:00 PM

Albany City Hall, Second Floor, Eagle Street, Albany

The Common Council Planning and Economic Development Committee is meeting on Wednesday to discuss the re-zoning of the proposed hotel site in the Pine Bush.

It is extremely important for everyone who cares about protecting the Pine Bush to attend this meeting.

At the hotel site is the only known site of worm snakes in upstate New York. The City of Albany has the responsibility to protect these snakes.

We have been successful at stopping this project for more than five years. We must continue to keep up the pressure. I hope to see you on Wednesday!

Sincerely,

Lynne Jackson
